About the investment advisor

With a track record dating back to 1969, Jennison Associates is an independent global asset manager with its headquarters in New York. It runs a specialist range of funds, focused on finding the best companies in growing industries. The firm is focused on consistently identifying innovation and disruptive ideas that will drive growth. It prizes independent thought, considered risk-taking, and delivering outperformance for investors.

Investment philosophy

The Fund invests in market-leading companies showing rapid growth and with outstanding competitive advantages. These businesses tend to outperform over time because the market underestimates their growth potential and how long that growth can last. In building this fund, Jennison’s highly-experienced team focus on companies that:

- Are innovative and disruptive.
- Have market-leading positions.
- Demonstrate high growth in margins and profitability.
- Are run by outstanding management teams.
- Have durable competitive advantages.
- Surpass the market’s expectations for their growth.

Risk profile

Investor profile

The Fund is ideally suited to investors with an investment horizon of 7 years or longer.
